

DEMENTIA CARE TRAINING DAY

Wednesday October 21 - Friday October 23, 9am-11am Daily

Register Here

Coordinated by the Wisconsin Alzheimer's Institute in collaboration with Wisconsin Alzheimer's Disease Research Center & Wisconsin Department of Health Services

Wednesday, October 21

- 9:00am – 9:15am Welcome from Dementia Care Training Day Coordinator
Bonnie Nuttkinson, MS, WAI & WADRC Outreach Specialist
- 9:05 – 9:15am Opening Remarks from Wisconsin Alzheimer's Institute Leadership
Cindy Carlsson, MD, MS, WAI Director
- 9:15am – 10:15am Debunking Cures, Preventions & Treatments of Alzheimer's disease
Tamara LeCaire, MS, PhD, WAI Scientist
- 10:15am – 10:55am Communication of Health Information in Communities of Color: COVID-19 experience and implications for ADRD
Maria Mora Pinzon, MD, MS, Family Medicine Fellow & WAI Scientist

Thursday, October 22

- 9:00am – 9:05am Good Morning & Welcome
- 9:05am – 10:00am Supporting People with Dementia and their Caregivers During the COVID-19 Pandemic
Art Walaszek, MD, Jack Hunt, MD/PhD Student
- 10:00am – 10:30am Social Determinants of Health – Wisconsin Longitudinal Study and Alzheimer's
Sanjay Asathana, MD, WADRC Director
- 10:30am – 10:45am Brain Cutting Video
- 10:45am – 11:00am Accessing Research Updates
Bonnie Nuttkinson, MS, WAI & WADRC Outreach Specialist

Friday, October 23

- 9:00am – 9:05am Good Morning & Welcome
- 9:05am – 10:00am Research Updates: Biomarkers & Imaging
Sterling Johnson, PhD
- 10:00am – 10:55am Factors that Impact Risk for Dementia
Barb Bendlin, PhD
- 10:55am – 11:00am Wrap-up & Evaluation
Cindy Carlsson, MD, MS & Bonnie Nuttkinson, MS